

STEPHEN PROCTER

Timeline

1971 born Upper Hutt New Zealand

1990- 1998 Victoria University of Wellington/ Wellington Polytechnic School of Design. Did three undergraduate degrees: BDes (Industrial), BA (Japanese and German language), BCA (Marketing)

1999- 2006 KWA design Group Sydney as Industrial designer

Designed amongst other things:

'Sun FX' Spray gun and compressor for spray tanning

Resmed sleep mask

Smartpole accessories for City of Sydney

Amtec exhibition space

'Mumi and Bubi' Tray for home freezing of baby food

'Transit TV' TV screens for Sydney buses

Skope towel rail and vents

1999-2006 spare time projects: 'Arc' church lectern

'Swirls' communion tray

'Urban Cellar' bottle rack

'Chew Lick Spill' Table cloth, coasters, place mats

2002 Married Elizabeth

2003 Became Australian Citizen

2006 Daughter Poppy born

2007 Inspired by daughter Poppy and our small living space, designed and exhibited range of foldable baby furniture at the at Salone Internazionale Del Mobile Satellite (the Milan Furniture Fair)

2007- Present Freelance designer

2008 Second daughter (Piper) born

Awards

1997 International Design Competition Osaka, Japan

Honourable Mention (entry 'Wave lamp')

2001 Sydney Morning Herald Young Designer of the Year

Honourable Mention (entry 'Frill Table' displayed in the Powerhouse museum, Sydney)

2002 Sydney Morning Herald Young Designer of the Year

Honourable Mention (entry 'Figure of Eight' displayed in the Powerhouse museum, Sydney)

2003 Sydney Morning Herald Young Designer of the Year

Honourable Mention (entry 'Table Cloth' displayed in the Powerhouse museum, Sydney)

2006 Australian Design Award- Powerhouse Museum Award for Spray Gun designed at KWA design group

2007 Salone Internazionale Del Mobile (the Milan Furniture Fair) Satellite

Design report Award for best designer. (Judged by Tomoko Azumi, Giulio Cappellini, Harry & Camila, Jehs + Laub and Martin Zentner and sponsored by Vitra and Thonet)